

300 MPH

Written by Camille Wells

Wednesday, 18 September 2019 13:19 - Last Updated Wednesday, 18 September 2019 13:34

Congratulations to Bob Blakely and crew on setting a new world record over 312 MPH at the USFA World of Speed meet in Bonneville. Powered by a 304 cu in. Automotive Specialists naturally aspirated SBC on gas. Automotive Specialists powered cars have broken 25+ Land Speed records since 2010. This is the first record for Automotive Specialists over 300 MPH! #300mph
#landspeed
#poweredbyautomotivespecialists